She went on to complete her studies.....and remains dedicated to developing and nurturing her gift of teaching and preaching. Francine was recently honored to have been invited to serve as a faculty instructor to teach the Gospel of John at the 114th Annual Session of the Congress of Christian Education, and as a presenter at the National Baptist Convention in Baltimore along with numerous engagements and in-depth ongoing Bible teaching and study.

God has gifted her through the power of the Holy Spirit to effectively communicate the life-changing Word of God with clarity, simplicity, humor, and truth. Francine feels humbled and privileged to share the Gospel message of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for over 25 years, striving to capture the heart of the listener and encourage those who will hear, to search the scriptures to find, know and believe in Jesus Christ and Jesus alone.
