Rev. Ratisha Bolin Saturday Guest Speaker

Rev. Ratisha E. Bolin embarked on her journey of preaching the gospel on Palm Sunday, March 20, 2016, under the guidance of Pastor Rev. Dr. Nathaniel L. Edmond. Rev. Bolin's dedication shines through her involvement in various ministries throughout the years, including the Soup Kitchen, SBC Choral Ensemble, and teaching roles within the Youth/Vacation Bible School, Sunday School, and Missionary programs. Her passion for teaching extends to co-teaching Wednesday night adult Bible study sessions alongside her Pastor and fellow ministers. Currently, she is under the leadership of Pastor Patrick E. Parks, who supported the launch of the Sister Circle, a Christian Book Club initiated during the pandemic. Rev. Bolin brings her leadership skills to the forefront as she ministers and supports the Choral Ensemble, where she also lends her melodious voice as a first soprano.

In May 2019, Rev. Bolin expanded her academic horizons, graduating from Judson University in Elgin, IL, with a Master of Business Administration, specializing in Organizational Leadership. Her exemplary qualities were recognized when she was bestowed the 2019 W.R. Meadows award by the faculty for her embodiment of quality, service, integrity, and family values.

Professionally, Rev. Bolin boasts over 19 years of experience in sales, customer service & logistics, customer fulfillment, and project management within the realm of supply chain management. Recently, she achieved her fourth promotion in four years, ascending to the esteemed position of Director of Procurement for Packaging.

As an avid reader, Rev. Bolin's thirst for knowledge is unquenchable, having devoured 41 books in just a year. She also nurtures aspirations of becoming an author. Fondly known as "Tee," she hails from Flint, MI, as the eldest daughter of Equan Bedenfield and Tony (Ruby) Ernest. With four sisters and one brother, her life is enriched by the presence of her beloved nieces, nephews, and godchildren.

Through life's trials and triumphs, Rev. Bolin has forged a profound and intimate relationship with God. Her guiding scripture, Matthew 6:33, encapsulates her journey: "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." (KJV)
